FYI - last of the background.

I will send you additional analysis that I have prepared by accessing public information. It should be helpful in explaining how assets traveled out of the estate and where they are now. The Creditors should be focused on fraudulent conveyance (dating back 10 years because of the IRS objection from 2008), Corporate Opportunity breach of fiduciary duties under Delaware and Texas law, alter ego, piercing the corporate veil, and conspiracy to commit fraud.

Subject: Highland background reading - additions for Crusader Redeemer Committee

Please see additional information regarding how the Crusader Redeemer committee became a creditor. Although the court filings are substantially redacted, the Credit Strategies materials provide a parallel explanation with many of the same methods of misconduct regarding principal transactions (Cornerstone, etc). This should provide helpful information on when the Crusader Claim actually arose.
